

To Whom It May Concern,
Diversity of thought and opinion is the cornerstone of a flourishing democracy. Without safegaurds against a complete domination of the views and ideas available to the citizens of our great country, we risk the very freedoms of speech and thought our forefathers fought to protect. Support American values and choose to reject deregulation of the media.

Respectfully,
Tim Merrill
Charlotte, NC